Anthony Froger Design

Barbell Pendant

Barbell explores a simple range of formal building blocks and local manufacturing techniques to present a line of ‘easy to lift’ LED lighting that varies in scale, impression, and function, one centered around classic aesthetics and efficiency of energy.

About Anthony Froger

Emerging designer Anthony Froger is making his mark on the London design scene after recent stints at Michael Sodeau, Oscar Diaz, Torsten Neeland and Innermost. Originally from France, Lerival Lighting’s ‘Barbell’ collection marks his first namesake line of products.
